Message from the Editor-in-Chief

It gives me immense pleasure to present the inaugural issue of SanskritiManthan: International Journal of Empowerment & Indian Culture. This journal has been envisioned as a sincere effort to provide a platform for researchers, academicians, thinkers, and practitioners to share their insights on Indian culture, empowerment, education, and social development.

In an era of rapid globalization and technological advancement, it becomes vital to revisit the timeless wisdom of Indian civilization while simultaneously engaging with contemporary challenges. SanskritiManthan aspires to bridge this gap by encouraging multidisciplinary dialogue that is rooted in tradition yet oriented towards modern relevance.

The primary aim of this journal is to empower voices—be it through research articles, critical essays, or reviews—that contribute to building a society based on knowledge, values, and inclusiveness. Special focus has been given to themes such as girl child empowerment, education, Indian cultural heritage, and community development, which form the very foundation of our vision.

I extend my heartfelt gratitude to all the contributors, peer reviewers, advisory board members, and well-wishers who have supported the realization of this endeavour. Their dedication and scholarly input have added immense value to this maiden issue.

It is my sincere hope that SanskritiManthan will inspire meaningful dialogue, promote intellectual growth, and serve as a lighthouse for empowerment and cultural revival. I invite readers and scholars alike to join us in this collective journey of reflection and transformation.

With warm regards,

Dr. D. M. Marathe

Founder & Editor-in-Chief
